AMERICA'S FINEST FOOD RETAILER... SINCE 1899

THE GREAT ATLANTIC & PACIFIC TEA COMPANY

NEW HOME... Henry Davis and his wife, Grace, lead their children into their new home at 2516 S. Figueroa, provided through the generosity of a Torrance homeowner who was not afraid to rent her house to a family with children. The Davises' new landlady is Mrs. Margo Lussman, operator of the Guys and Dolls Nursery at 2315 Arlington. Mrs. Lussman responded immediately when informed by the Herald of the Davises' situation. Within three hours, the Davis family had changed their place of residence from a lean-to tent in El Nido Park to a brand new, three-bedroom home complete with large, fenced-in yard and television aerial. Now all they need is furniture and beds to sleep in. And a few Christmas toys for the kids, of course. (Herald photo)

HOMELESS... This is where the Davis family was living when Gilbert Grossman, who lives across from El Nido Park, found them. Since nobody would rent them a house because of their nine children, the Davises were forced to go out to the park and pitch a tent in which to shelter their children. Seven months of the Davis' hood is shown above, at the campsite. The tent, open at three sides, provided little warmth for the Davises on two or three nights this week. The family had two beds, so all the children huddled together in them for warmth. (Herald photo) can stop eating out of cans and begin to get back onto a healthy, home cooked diet.

Family of Eleven Moves Into House

Other organizations heard about the Davis case as the word spread. The Chamber of Commerce was contacted and promised to practically bury the Davises in Christmas baskets full of food for the kids. Women's Clubs in Torrance heard the appeal, and volunteered food, clothes and aid in every form. Even the California Edison Company got into the act. They promised to rush right out to the new Davis residence and turn on the electricity, so the family could have lights to see while moving into the house Tuesday night.

Everyone Asked To Help - We are sure that this story will get the rest of Torrance to rummaging, people always seem to be able to come up with some article of clothing or piece of furniture that they aren't using, and that they are willing to part with for a nominal price.

The nine Davis children are not looking forward to a very big Christmas, as far as toys, Christmas trees, and Santa Claus go. But, judging from the reaction to their plight thus far in this city, those children may be surprised. We hope they are.

Can Work Again

As soon as Mr. Davis gets his family settled in their new home, he can begin work again. Mrs. Davis is going to make arrangements with Harbor General Hospital to take care of her when her child is born.

If the baby is born on Christmas Day, the re-enactment of the Christ story will be complete. But even if it isn't, the City of Torrance is giving to the Davis family the "greatest present that can be offered - its heart."
